The Architects of Modern Odisha

FAKIR MOHAN SENAPATI

Fakir Mohan Senapati was born on January 14, 1843, at Mallikashpur in Balasore. His father was Laxman Charan Senapati and mother Tulsi Devi.

He played a leading role in establishing the distinct identity of Odia language and literature. He is regarded as the father of Odia nationalism and the modern Odia literature. He dedicated his life for the progress of Odia language in the later 19th and early 20th century. The story of Fakirmohan is indeed the story of the “Renaissance” of Odia literature. Besides he was a social reformer and educator who used his pen to criticize and correct the aberrations prevalent in the society. He is called the father of Odia fiction.

He is aptly called as Thomas Hardy of Odisha. The four novels of Fakir Mohan, written between 1897 and 1915, reflect the socio-cultural conditions of Odisha during the eighteenth and the nineteenth centuries. While the three novels, Chhamana Atha Guntha, Mamun and Prayaschita explore the realities of social life in its multiple dimensions, Lachhma is a historical romance dealing with the anarchical conditions of Odisha in the wake of Maratha invasions during the eighteenth century. He has written quite a few memorable short stories, such as ‘Rebati’, ‘Patent Medicine’ and ‘Randipua Ananta’. Fakir Mohan is also the writer of the first autobiography in Odia, ‘Atma Jeevan Charita’.

Fakir Mohan’s first original poem ‘Utkala Bhramanam’ (Tours of Odisha) appeared in 1892. It is not really a travel book but rather an unusual and humorous survey of the contemporary personalities prominent in the then public life of Odisha. His other original poems published are Puspamala (The Garland), Upahar (Gift), Puja Phula (Flowers of Worship), Prarthana (Prayer) and Dhuli (Dust-grains). Fakir Mohan Senapati translated single-handedly the whole of the ‘Ramayana’ and the ‘Mahabharat’. For having translated both the ‘Ramayan’ and the ‘Mahabharat’ single-handed and his wide versatility in the word of letters, he is popularly known as ‘Vyasakabi’ in Odisha. He was also conferred the title ‘Saraswati’ by the king of Bamra, the then feudal state. A great lover and a creator of new era in Odia literature he was the founder of an organization called ‘Utkala Bhasa Unmni Bidhani Sabha’, which was started in 1867 to create a new awareness among the people of Odisha and to propagate Odia language. Sad demise June 14, 1918.

UTKAL GOURAB MADHUSUDAN DAS

Madhusudan Das was born on 1848, April 28 at Satyabhamapur of Cuttack District. His father was Choudhuri Raghunath Das and Mother–Parvati Devi.

Madhusudan Das was the first Odia to fetch the degree of M.A.B.L., from Calcutta University. He was popularly known as Madhu Barrister, respectfully regarded and addressed as “Utkal Gourav”. He was deeply moved and shocked to see the discrimination, made against the Odias by administrative authority. He was convinced that the miserable plight of the Odias was only due to the apathetic and indifferent attitude of authorities towards the interest of the Odia people. The Odias could not stand united only because of their vivisection and annexation with three different provinces. So, he took a solid stand for the unification of the scattered Odias by organising and mobilising strong public opinion among the Odias and pressurised the British rulers for the unification of the scattered Odia-speaking tracts for the socio-economic and cultural growth of the Odias at large.

Madhusudan organised Utkal Union Conference to form the channel for discussion and negotiations with the authorities to solve the problems and open avenues for a new era of unification and integration and played a piloting role in engineering the plans and programmes, pioneering the aims and objectives and championing the cause of the Odia movement. “Utkal Sammilani” came into existence in the year 1903 with the extinction of “Utkal Sabha”, it spearheaded the movement of the unification of Odia-speaking units under one administration with right earnestness, disciplined plans and programmes.

Due to the ability and inspiration of Mr. Das, people of all categories and sections conglomerated under one political banner. It inspired people with a surging up feeling of oneness of culture, tradition and language and a rare sense of nationality. This impact thundered the sky of Odisha. It went up to such an extent that “freedom movement” and the Odia movement got inter-linked under the stable leadership of Mr. Das and Utkalmani Gopabandhu Das. Sometimes the two movements were lacking harmony on the issue of priority. This situation impelled people to join hands with Mr. Das in the forum of Odia movement, then the Congress. Utkal Sammilani or the Utkal Union Conference maintained its separate identity from the Congress.

As a legislator, Madhusudan Das acclaimed a commendable height of wide appreciation and position. It was mostly due to his sharp wit and inspiring speech of effective magnitude. He was selected as the Minister of local self-Government of Bihar-Odisha.

He was a leader of versatile performance and could arrest appreciation and love of the people and the Government during the tenure of his ministry. Inspite of his popularity, he resigned in 1923 on a matter of principle. It speaks of his integrity.

His journalistic approach was reflected in his weekly paper ‘The Odia’ started in 1917. It was his intense desire to highlight the interest of Odias, criticising the Government’s policy through this channel of weekly paper. He was very genuine and emphatic in his voice and action.

He was a national pioneer and a staunch patron of Odishan development. He breathed his last on the 4th February 1934. He was a bonafide benefactor, a nationalist in true sense, acquiring the first Master Degree and first B.L. Degree as the first Odia. He was the first Odia to be member of Legislative Council, the first Odia to visit England twice and to have the membership of Central Legislative Assembly as the first Odia and the first Indian Minister.

In 1903 Sriram Chandra presided over the 1st session of Utkal Sammilani. Afterwards owing to the concerted efforts of this Sammilani the dream of Odisha for becoming a separate State came to reality on 1st April 1936. UTKALAMANI PANDIT GOPABANDHU DAS Gopabandhu Das was born on 9th October 1877.

The then Prime Minister Indira Gandhi, has aptly written, “The second half of the 19th century gave birth to outstanding men and women in various parts of the country. The brilliance, social reforms, education, law and literature are astonishing. Shri Gopabandhu Das was one such nation builder”.

The age long hopes, yearning and prayers of the people of Odisha were fulfilled with the advent of Utkalami Gopabandhu. He was the builder of modern Odisha and was the source of inspiration and ideals for her people. He dedicated himself completely for the country to that extent that he had to lose his only son in his bid to redress the suffering of others. He wanted a society - free from poverty and ignorance where man could live with self-respect and would be able to develop his own consciousness. He vowed and worked throughout his life to achieve the objective.

Recognising the noble standings of Gopabandhu, Acharya Prafulla Chandra Ray on 28.6.1924, the veteran scientist and patriot of Bengal assigned the title of Utkalamani, (Jewel of Utkal) to his name. In 1909 he had started Satyavadi (M.E. National) school with Pandit Nilakantha Das and others in which Pandit Godavarish and Acharya Harihar also joined little later. The school soon became popular, for its qualitative and character building values. Along with Madhusudan Das he continued his struggle to arouse the people of Odisha to press their demands for the separate Odisha province through Utkal Union Conference. He gave it a new image by his practical works to keep up the cultural, literary and linguistic affinity and independent identity of Odias then living in Bihar, Bengal and other Provinces. At Bahadaguda of Dhalbhum he also started an Odia M.E. School. Then in order to spread the Odia language and literature he started weekly ‘Samaja’ on the 4th October 1919.

His immortal words still inspire the younger generation.

“Let my body mingle with the dust of this Land, And let my countrymen walk along my back. Let all the holes in the road of freedom be filled with my blood and bone, And let my life be sacrificed when my people awake into freedom.”

He was a poet par excellence. The idea of nationalism and love for Lord Jagannath and Puri has been emotionally described in his poem.

“The Indian-lotus blooms in the world- pond
And the Holy Nilachal is like pollens in one lotus,
And whenever I am in India I am always in my room,
In my eyes the Indian stone is a holy stone,
And every place is as beloved as my Puri,
And all water is as holy as the water of fine holy rivers,
And every holy place is my Nilachal”.

Bandira Atmakatha and Abakasha Chinta are his unique creations. He was versatile, genius, a freedom fighter, maker of modern Odisha, saviour of Odia language, a social worker, and ideal teacher, philanthropist, journalist, poet, philosopher and a preacher of Jagannath cult.
